

ning and Other Accidents

A drowning and several other accidents occurred at Gary on the first day of vacation.

Carried Off—Willard Darnell, 428 Darnell Avenue, Chicago, and Howard Patten, a chauffeur, went to the base at Miller's Beach so that they had been told was dangerous. It began to sink and Patten slipped overboard, drowning. Batteries were ruined.

Albert Schmitz, 238 Lakeshore avenue, was driving his automobile into a red car at Cleveland street. Schmitz is safe and their daughter, Doris, and son were taken to Mercy hospital, slightly injured.

John Kennedy, 261 Washington boulevard, Chicago, fell beneath a Michigan Avenue train at East Gary and was run over. Kennedy had attempted to board the moving train.

Gladys Moore, 1317 Washington street, was stabbed in the back. Taken to a hospital where she will recover the woman said an Arthur Lawrence was her assailant. Arthur cannot be found.

Frank Boenicki, 1341 N. California Avenue, Chicago, was found unconscious on Ridge road and taken to St. John's Hospital. He had fallen from his motorcycle.

An automobile reached carrying a piano from Chicago caught fire on Fifth Avenue near Broadway last evening. Miss Martha Feltine, 2731 Cottage Grove Avenue, was slightly burned.

A family of two adults and four children was found suffocating as they slept yesterday afternoon in 1313 Adams Street. They had retired Saturday night by Officer Stewall of Hammond Central station. He was charged with violating the auto law. The specific charge against the man with the vintage-style name was that he drove recklessly through the gates of the M. R. railroad at Hammond street, colliding with Rubin Chindag, salaried. The latter was not seriously hurt. Vin Blane told Officer Fandor that he had no license on his auto. The Muse was released on cash bail of $500. He lives at 715 Schrage avenue, Whiting.

POLES SEEK SUPPORT FOR DRIVE

With almost a week of the drive for the Polish loan past the committee which has charge of the work of raising $125,000 in the Twin Cities reports good progress and makes a prediction that the entire amount will be raised before the month ends, June 30.

The total campaign is being managed by John Bochniak, Joseph Wadas and Julian Gogolak and they are placing special emphasis upon the fact that the national campaign is being underwritten by a corporation sanctioned by the government of the United States and in which such men as J. C. Eaton, Amour, Percy Rockefeler, General McRoberts and E. F. Rosenbaum are interested.

Recent reports from Europe, which state that the Oim Tschiffli is now the only barrier between the Bolsheviks and the rest of Europe are expected to help in the sale of bonds not only to the Polish people of the region, but also to the American people, who are anxious to see the spread of Bolshevism checked. In addition to the humanitarian point of view it is pointed out that the bonds, bearing 6 per cent interest, are a good investment.

NO BRAKES ON HIS AUTOMOBILE

Vin Blane Muse, girl that reminiscent name you chaps, who imbibed Vin Blane over there and then fell like the Muse, Vin Blane Muse was arrested yesterday by Officer Stewall of Hammond Central station. He was charged with violating the auto law. The specific charge against the man with the vintage-style name was that he drove recklessly through the gates of the M. R. railroad at Hammond street, colliding with Rubin Chindag, salaried. The latter was not seriously hurt. Vin Blane told Officer Fandor that he had no license on his auto. The Muse was released on cash bail of $500. He lives at 715 Schrage avenue, Whiting.

BLAME HEGEWISCH MAN FOR ACCIDENT

Local speakers named yesterday by the police included Dolie Arnold, aged 18, nomination none; 700 Price Place; Mary Douglas, aged 22, same occupation and address; W. O'Brien, 304 Buff Building; John Lawson, 210 Hoffman street; J. T. Jackson, 630 Hoffman street; and C. W. Cordrey, 304 Buff building. The six made up a very merry party and at the corner of Truman st., the car in which they were riding grazed a machine belonging to a Hegewisch man. He was very indignant. He called Officers Carlson, Lute and Warner and they six were booked on charges of speeding. They will be arraigned in the city court June 8, according to A. E. Tinkham, representative of the defendants. The whole fault of the accident lay with the Hegewisch man.

BARKOOT SHOWS THIS EVENING

The K. G. Barkoot shows one of the largest carnivals on the road, reached West Hammond Sunday and the first exhibitions are to be held this evening. The tents were all erected yesterday, but owing to the late arrival of the train and lack of electric power the shows remained closed until today.

The company carries fifteen high-class shows and the management guarantees every one of them to be a team moral attraction which the entire family may attend. There are three big riding devils and two brass bands. In fact, there is amusement and entertainment every minute after the show opens in the evenings.

Prince Nelson, king of the high wire artists, furnishes the big draw attraction twice daily. At four o'clock in the afternoon and just in the evening he mounts the high wire at a dizzy height and does a series of stunts.

CHIEF STRONG GETS ACCUSED CONDUCTOR

Gate Skinner, 266 Indiana avenue, was arrested yesterday by Chief Benjamin H. Strong and Special Agent B. Jorgens of the I. H. C. on a charge of grand larceny. He was released on bonds of $1,000.

Skinner is alleged to have stolen several rolls of valuable cloth from one of the cars of the train of which he was conductor. The theft is said to have taken place last December and Skinner, it is said, has been sought ever since.

Twenty-four hours after the case was passed in his hands Strong "got" his man.

BURGLARS ENTER HOME

Unscrupulous burglars entered the home of Mrs. Glenn Grey yesterday while the family was at Harrison park and stole a gold watch treasured as a keepsake. The Gray live at 186 Wilcox street.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT

Peter J. Homrich, 602 Solid street, had ideas of his own on observing the "Let's Celebrate." Yesterday he was arrested at the Menon lunch room when he attempted to disseminate ideas at the expense of other people's noses and ears. Officer Flanagan unmercifully "pinched" Homrich and the latter was fined $5 in the city court this morning on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Get a hot today, and it's goodbye constipation, and all stomach and liver troubles. For sale by all Druggists.

THE WAY IT HAPPENED

"Whose a rabbit?"

"You are!"

"You're another!"

Buff Bang! Hammond Hotel lobby.

In this corner, Beside Carlson, 30 years old and married. In this corner, Gloucester Kerr, 35 years old, and single. But what are compared to experience?

Buff Bang! Police. Police.

Disorderly conduct. $10.

NO SPEEDWAY STUFF HERE

Metenemmen Warner and Lute, of Hammond Central police station, spent

The Head of the Class

Every boy who rides a bike should put Firestones on it. They lead—they stand at the head of the list for comfortable riding and long wear.

We can give you Firestones with the sturdy, non-skid tread like auto tire treads. Colors, gray, black or red, and at prices you can afford.

See us today. We'll appreciate your trade and keep it on service.

A. J. Walz
229 State St.
Hammond, Ind.

Firestone

EXCELSIOR WINS

THE GRAND OPENING OF THE HOBART MOTORCYCLE RACE TRACK WAS AN

EXCELSIOR DAY

First honors to the good old X—it was a walk away. SPEED—more than enough. Three firsts and two seconds out of five races entered. The 1920 Excelsior is the fastest, most powerful motorcycle ever offered for sale to the American and foreign public. Extra wide mud guards, 27x3½ inch tires, removable frame bar, handle bar control clutch. Built for service and hard work.

THE IDEAL SOLO OR SIDE CAR MACHINE
THE GOOD OLD X ALWAYS MAKES GOOD

Sold on Easy Payments

AL J. WALZ

LAKE COUNTY DISTRIBUTOR
469-471 Washington St.,
GARY

229-231 State St.,
HAMMOND

See Our

Big One-Day

Bed Outfit Specials

on Page 7

Lion Store

KAUFMANN & WOLF - HAMMOND, IND.

FIVE CENT CAR FARE AGAIN

Car fare in Hammond dropped to 5 cents at midnight last night.

Hundreds of workers were surprised this morning when they were handed back the usual extra two cents. The same fare now obtains in Hammond, East Chicago and Whiting.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

JOHN ROBINSON'S CIRCUS, JUNE 9

The John Robinson Circus, which is to be in Hammond on Wednesday, June 9, has strongly emphasized features of the appearance on this year's program.

Demonstrations of riding, acrobatics, and the like, will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.

Street car employees were puzzled over their pay status. Their former wage of 95 cents an hour was adopted only until June 1. Whether or not street car operators will continue to pay the original rate or will drop to the old rate of 40 cents an hour could not be learned.